

How to get to Soest/Westphalia

Directions by car:

Soest (about 49,000 inhabitants) is situated in the middle of Germany in North Rhine Westphalia near the A44 motorway (Autobahn) which runs between Dortmund and Kassel - about 50 km to the east of Dortmund or 120 km to the west of Kassel. Exit: Soest Ost.

From Kassel:

After coming off at the Soest-Ost junction, go straight on across the traffic lights onto the industrial estate (Gewerbegebiet Soest-Südost) on the 'Overweg' road. After 1.5 km turn left into the 'Lange Wende' road. The Actebis Headquarters are 300 m further along on the left hand side.

From Dortmund:

To reach our logistic centre in Soest turn right at the traffic lights onto the B475 after coming off the motorway at the Soest-Ost junction. Turn right at the next exit which leads to the Opmünder Weg, then turn right again and the logistic centre is on the right hand side after 200m.

By aircraft:

The two airports nearest to Soest are Dortmund and Paderborn. Both are located half an hour (about 50 km distance) from Soest offering many national flight connections and international connections via Frankfurt or Munich. You can get to Soest in about 30 minutes by car or taxi from Dortmund or Paderborn. The International airport in Düsseldorf is about 120 km away (about 1 ½ - 2 h by car). Car rentals are available.

By train:

There is a good railway connection as well with the high-speed ICE trains stopping in Soest on their way between Düsseldorf and Kassel-Wilhelmshöhe. Trains from Hamburg, Hannover or Berlin stop in Hamm (20 minutes by car or train from Soest).

Have a good trip!
